The Morrison government is doing the right thing in pushing for an independent inquiry into the origins and handling of COVID-19	79	87	72	72	77	80	71	79	82	84
The Morrison government needs to do more to prioritise our relationship with China and to avoid antagonising one of our important trading partners	16	12	21	20	20	13	22	14	16	13
Don't know	5	1	7	8	3	7	7	7	2	3

Question: Australia, with the United States and the European Union, has been active in pushing for an inquiry into the origins and handling of the COVID-19 pandemic. China has said it opposes a politicised international investigation but will support a World Health Organisation inquiry after the virus is brought under control. China has imposed tariffs on Australian barley exports. Some analysts see the tariff as retaliation for Australia's pushing for an independent inquiry into the origins of the coronavirus pandemic. Which is closer to your own view?
